A grayscale photograph of a mountain range. The foreground shows a dark, forested slope. In the middle ground, there are rolling hills and valleys filled with mist or low clouds. In the background, more mountain peaks are visible, some with patches of snow or light-colored rock. The overall atmosphere is serene and majestic.

Nature

Everyone should be able to build, and as long as this freedom to build does not exist, the present day planned architecture cannot be considered art at all.

A room should never allow the eye to settle

It should smile
at you and create fantasy.
